which is effectively

What if a small group of world leaders were to conclude that the principal risk to the Earth comes from the actions of the rich countries?... In order to save the planet, the group decides: Isn't the only hope for the planet that the industrialized civilizations collapse? Isn't it our responsibility to bring that about?

— Maurice Strong —

AZ QUOTES

And, of course, an enlightened public support, aware of the new needs and of the possible consequences would be essential. A dynamic world needs an effective nervous system at the grass-roots level, not only to ensure the widest range of inputs, but to make possible the identification of all citizens with the common process of governance.

In the present, vacuous situation, lack of identification of people with the processes of society is expressed as indifference, skepticism or outright rejection of governments and political parties, seen as having little control over the problems of our times. These attitudes are indicated by a decreasing rate of participation in elections.

THE COMMON ENEMY OF HUMANITY IS MAN

In searching for a new enemy to unite us, we came up with the idea that pollution, the threat of global warming, water shortages, famine and the like would fit the bill. In their totality and in their interactions
