The little boy asked,
"What are you doing?"
"Watching," I said.
"Do you have any toys?" he asked.
"Yes," I said.
"Me, too. Let's play!"

We wore silly hats and blew up balloons.

We played the drum and danced.

We sang songs and jumped in the air.
"You're my friend," he said.
"You're my friend too," I said.
We were very happy.

One day my friend had a new toy.
"It's soft and new and mine," he said.
"I want to play with it," I said.
He held the bunny tight. "No," he said.

the bunny broke!

Vizle

I peeked in the window.
He was trying to fix the bunny.
"What are you doing?" he asked.
"Watching," I said.
"Oh," he said.
"I think I can help," I said.
"How?" he asked.

V

I showed him what we could do.
Together we fixed the bunny almost as good as new.
"I'm sorry I broke your bunny," I said.
"It doesn't look so bad now," he said.
