“I try to be humble. I think we are all the same as humans. It doesn't matter if I'm a footballer, an actor, or a singer. I just want to behave like a normal man, and I try to make our country proud.”

- Son Heung Min to CNN Sport

In another answer to Davies-Jones, Clarke went on to say: “BAME communities are not an amorphous mass. If you look at top level football the Afro-Caribbean community is overrepresented compared to the south Asian community. If you go to the IT department of the FA there’s a lot more south Asians than there are Afro-Caribbeans. They have different career interests.”
