

Vizle

tomorrow we will be writing a diary entry based on Stanley's first days at Camp Green Lake.

This is described from Chapters 4-9 in 'Holes', but you should feel free to deviate from the book slightly and add your own details about what happens.

The diary entry will be in past tense and written from Stanley's perspective (I, me, my).

Vizley sections in our diary entry:

Day 1

Journey to Camp Green Lake	Getting clothes and a tour of the camp	Meeting the other boys and dinner
-What was the bus journey like? -What was I thinking/feeling? Remember that Camp Green Lake needs capital letters.	-What did the camp look like? -What did I think of Mr. Sir?	-How did the other boys seem? -What did I eat for dinner? -What was it like?

Day 2

Waking up early to dig	Struggling to dig	Back at camp, spending time with the other boys
-How did I feel? -What was the shovel like? -What was I told to do?	-Why was it so difficult? -What did I do to make it easier? -How did I manage to finish in the end?	-Has my opinion of them changed? -How do I feel about the next 18 months here?

Vizle remember!

When we are writing a plan, we don't need to write full sentences, as we will be writing these tomorrow.

We just need short notes about happened and how we felt to help us organise our writing.

Day 1:

Journey to Camp Green Lake

- Rusty and shaky bus
- 8 hour journey through the desert. There was no life anywhere as far as I could see.
- Stern-looking guard and driver sat in silence the entire time
- I was lost in my thoughts wondering how on earth I got myself into this situation
- Drove past a half-broken sign for Camp Green Lake. Some of the e's had fallen off.
- Stepped off the bus into what seemed like a furnace
