Online Overview of The thoracic cage

Structure of the vertebra

The vertebral body

Superior articular process

Ahmed Farid

The vertebral arch

Articular processes

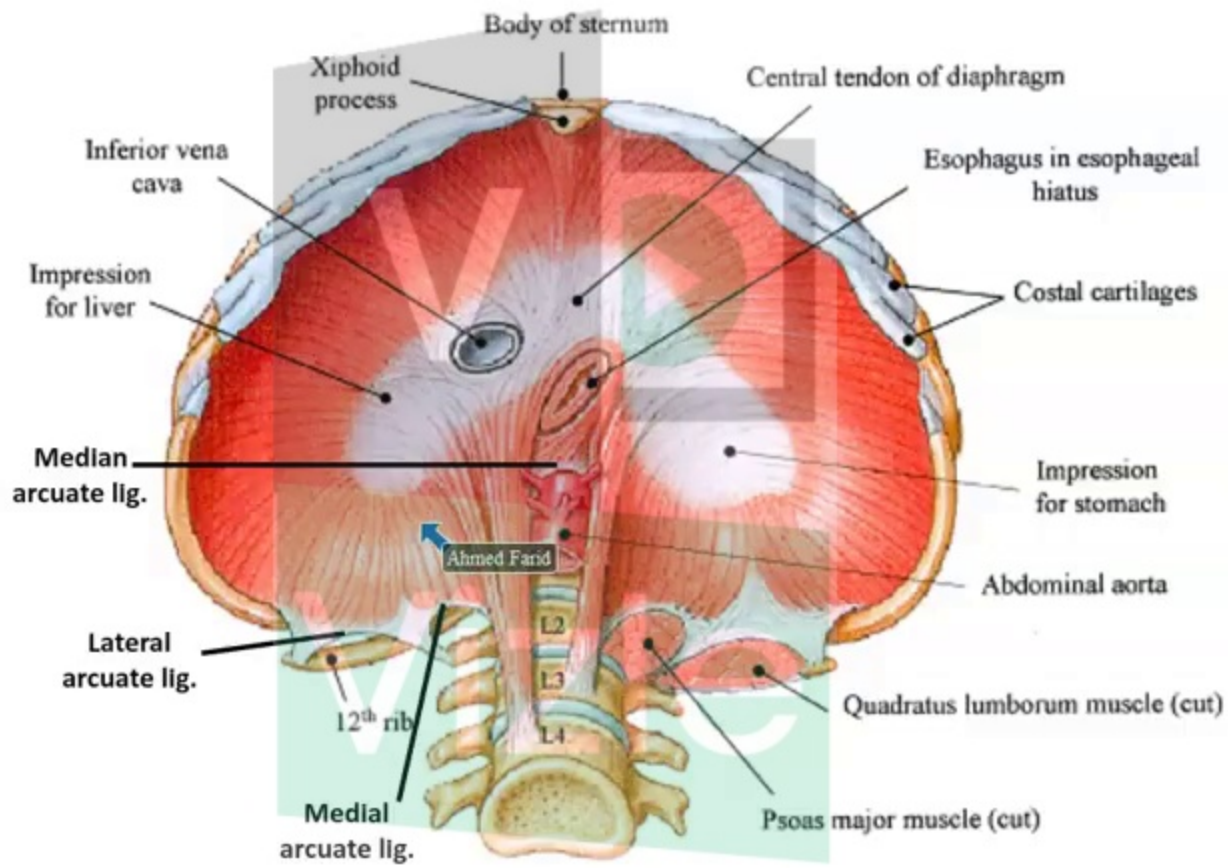

Inferior articular process

- They arise at the junctions between pedicles and laminae.
- There are 2 superior and 2 inferior articular processes.
- The superior articular processes articulate with the inferior articular processes of the above vertebra and vice versa.

- So, each vertebra has 7 processes: 2 transverse processes, 2 superior articular processes, 2 inferior articular processes, and a single spine.
