

#3. I will give you a BRILLIANT SCRIPTED ANSWER to one of the hardest interview questions you will have to respond to!

Remember this: positivity attracts positivity. If you are negative, monotone in your answers or you are disrespectful about former employers or co-workers, you will not get hired.

And don't forget to dress professionally, and take pride in your appearance. You will be assessed against this during your interview!

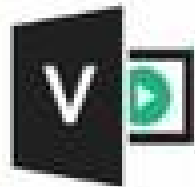

Interviewers look for someone who can work in a team structure, someone who can make decisions and solve problems on their own, and someone who can plan, organize, and prioritize their work.

Employers don't want to spend their valuable time constantly supervising and monitoring someone!
